On the road with Twinnies Gives

If you spot the bright new Twinnies Gives jeep out and about in the local community, it's likely Twin Towns' Community Engagement Officer, Kym Kranen, will be behind the wheel.

Kym has been visiting many local community organisations that have reached out to Twinnies Gives for funding through ClubGRANTS or the Twin Towns Services Community Foundation.

Prior to taking up the community-focused position at Twin Towns in October, Kym was a strong supporter of regional economic growth and development through senior roles with State and Local Government.

She has built deep connections and strong relationships with key stakeholders in the local community and has amassed a wealth of knowledge of all things 'grants and funding'.

Kym can offer assistance to those navigating the ClubGRANTS application process or advice to those whose applications are not likely to meet the specific requirements for Club funding.

"Sometimes, we receive applications for funding that fall outside the criteria for Category 1 or 2 ClubGRANTS donations.

"I can work with these organisations to help source alternative funding opportunities or link them up with government agencies, philanthropic foundations and businesses to try and gain the financial support they need."

Twin Towns Community Engagement Officer Kym Kranen

Kym recently assisted Banora Point High School with details of a grant offered by a private company teachers were previously unaware of.

They have since applied for funds to purchase much needed STEM equipment and are hopeful of a successful result.

Kym says her passion is working with community organisations to help them achieve the best possible outcomes for important projects or programs that need funding.

"Hearing their applications have been approved is the icing on the cake!

"Twinnies 'Gives' in so many ways many people are unaware of. If we can't help for whatever reason, we'll use our resources to try and find someone who can."

VALE BRIAN AHRENS

The Board of Directors, management and staff extend sincere condolences to the family of Brian Ahrens, who passed away recently at the age of 92.

Brian was Twin Towns' longest serving member, having joined the Club in 1959 at the age of 26. What a different Twin Towns he would have experienced almost 66 years ago!

Brian's family expressed how proud he was to be a member of the Club. Amongst his most cherished possessions was his Twinnies badge number 500, which to him was a symbol of loyalty and camaraderie.

Brian and his wife Dawn, who passed away in 2019, were well known around the Club. They bought an apartment at the Resort off the plan and moved in when it opened in 1999.

Every day, rain, hail or shine, Brian took his seat at the 'Table of Knowledge', a group of residents who met every afternoon in Signatures for a beer and a chat.

Brian's daughter Jane jokingly said that the staff at Twin Towns saw more of their dad than they did!

"He had time for everyone," said his family, "anyone who needed a friend, a smile or a pat on the back. He made everyone feel like family."

Brian moved into care in 2023 but was a highly regarded member of the Twin Towns' family for decades.

He will be fondly remembered by all.

LAST CHANCE TO REGISTER FOR THE MEN'S TABLE ENTRÉE AT TWIN TOWNS

MONDAY 3 MARCH, FLAME COMMUNITY ROOM, LEVEL 1, 5.30PM – 8PM (QLD TIME)

The Men's Table, an organisation that holds community get-togethers across Australia, will host its first Tweed event at Twin Towns on Monday 3 March.

The Men's Table Entrée is an introduction to The Men's Table concept through open sharing and conversation over a relaxed meal.

The Entrée is an opportunity to meet other men, learn how a Table works, and decide whether you'd like to be part of the group.

The Men's Table began over a decade ago when a group of men decided to get together for dinner, to connect, and talk about the highs and lows of their lives.

They've been meeting once a month ever since and monthly Men's Tables now take place in every State, all year round.

The Men's Table creates a sense of belonging, community, peer support and camaraderie that is lacking for many men, even those who already have a group of mates.

Registrations are essential. Ticket price is $30.25 including dinner. Beverages - cold drinks or tea and coffee - can be purchased from the bar.

CLUB BANORA

GREEN VELVET

Saturday 22 March, 6pm NSW

Newcomers to Club Banora, Tony and Olivia from Green Velvet, create a fun and carefree atmosphere with their repertoire of cheery tunes. On the night, they'll lure you out of your seat and up on the dance floor with classic rock'n'roll, jazz and funk, along with some disco favourites.

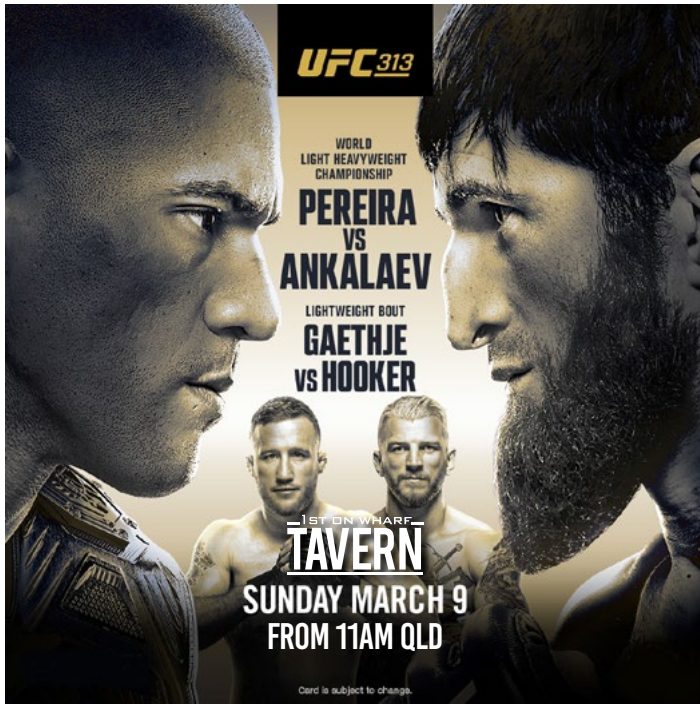

JUNIORS

MATT BUGGY

Sunday 23 March, 1pm NSW

Matt Buggy, the regular frontman and lead singer of rock band Fat Albert, is as charismatic as he is entertaining. Matt is flying solo for this gig at Juniors, where he'll be showcasing his huge voice, totally awesome guitar playing and infectious enthusiasm for a good tune.

Brazilian superstar Alex Pereira returns to Las Vegas with a main event clash against number one title contender, Magomed Ankalaev in UFC 313.

This comes hot on the heels of Pereira's historic run in 2024, where he stepped into the Octagon three times to defend his UFC light heavyweight title, each time emerging with a knockout victory.

This will be the second chance at gold for the Russian powerhouse Ankalaev, who fought Jan Blachowicz to a draw in a vacant titlebout in December 2022.

That result was part of a current 13-fight unbeaten streak, which dates back to 2018.

Now Ankalaev gets another shot at ruling the division.

UFC 313 gets underway from 11am Qld at the Tavern, with the main event scheduled for 1pm Qld. Get in early for the best seats in front of the MEGAscreen.

Midweek boxing action is coming to the Tavern in March when Keith 'One Time' Thurman from Florida returns to the ring to take on Brock Jarvis in Sydney.

Former welterweight champion Thurman (30-1, 22 KOs) will end a three-year layoff with this junior middleweight fight.

In the ring with Thurman will be Aussie Brock Jarvis (22-1, 20 KOs), the number 3 ranked super welterweight in the Oceania region.

Jarvis boasts a solid 22-1 record, his lone defeat coming against compatriot Liam Paro.

For both fighters, this is a golden opportunity to add some WBA hardware to their résumés.

First fight on the card gets underway at 5pm Qld.

Settle in for some coldies and dinner at the Tavern. It is sure to be a big night so invite your friends to come along too.

FOOTY ACTION ON THE MEGASCREEN ICY COLD BEERS AT THE BAR

Grab your favourite drink from the bar, a hearty pub-style meal from the restaurant, place a few bets at the TAB, and kick back to watch your favourite sports on the 5.4 metre MEGAscreen.
